5. APPOINTMENT OF THE MANAGER

The Corporate Client HEREBY APPOINTS the Manager to be its manager and agent to invest, administer and manage the Corporate Client Account, and the Manager may in doing so treat the Corporate Client's Account as a component of the Corporate Client Fund or any other fund or scheme which the Manager deems in the best interest of the Corporate Client.

6. RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE MANAGER

In accordance with the above, the Manager shall have the following powers and responsibilities:

Management

- (i) The Manager shall manage and administer the Corporate Client Account to the best of the Manager's ability and in the interest of the Corporate Clients, subject to the terms and conditions of this Schedule.
- (ii) The Manager shall not be obliged to consult the Corporate Client prior to effecting any trade or dealing made on the Corporate Client's behalf unless otherwise agreed.
- (iii) The Manager shall have the responsibility for the preparation of all contracts and other documents necessary or convenient for the management of the Corporate Client Account, and the Manager may sign such contracts and documents where it is convenient so to do or may require the Corporate Client representative(s) to sign same.
- (iv) The Manager shall calculate and make payment of all disbursements, and all other payments due to be made under the Schedule, and keep true and full accounts of all monies passing through its hands and of all other matters so as to show the essential particulars relating to the Corporate Client Account.
- (v) The Corporate Client hereby acknowledges that its Investments are subject to taxation, and regulation under all the applicable laws, rules and regulations; and consents to the Manager discharging its obligations under the said applicable laws rules and regulations including the obligation to withhold and pay over the requisite withholding tax.

Obligation to Invest

- (vi) The Manager shall in its discretion invest the Investments in Securities and may deal in and alter such Securities from time to time.
- (viii) The Manager may maintain the Corporate Client Accounts separate from other client monies under its management or may consolidate and commingle the Corporate Client Account with such other monies, may maintain a separate account of the Corporate Client Accounts or may appropriate to the Corporate Client a share of a consolidated and commingled fund, or may adopt such other methodology for accounting for the quantum and value of the Corporate Client Account as the Manager finds convenient.

- (viii) The Corporate Client authorizes the Manager to deduct all expenses that may be incurred in relation to the Corporate Client' Accounts from any of the Corporate Client Accounts. It is hereby disclosed to the Corporate Client that such expenses may include a margin made by the Manager in brokering to the Corporate Client Fund investments acquired by the Manager on behalf of the over by the Corporate Client.
- (ix) The Corporate Client authorizes the Manager to exercise all rights, functions and privileges which now or hereafter could be exercised by the Corporate Client itself in relation to any of the Investments comprising the Corporate Client Accounts or otherwise.

Inter-client Trading

- (x) It is understood and agreed that, in order to promote the flexibility and liquidity of the Corporate Client Account Fund, and to facilitate new investments and the encashment of existing investments from time to time by the Corporate Client and other clients of the Manager whose individual funds comprise the Fund:
 - (i) The Manager may from time to time in the ordinary course of managing the Corporate Client Account sell to such other clients assets comprised in the Corporate Client Account. Similarly, the Manager may from time to time purchase on behalf of the Corporate Client, assets comprised in the individual funds of such other clients; and
 - (ii) This inter-client trading may at times result in the purchase for the Corporate Client Account assets earning lower yields than corresponding assets sold from the Corporate Client Account to other clients, in particular where interest rates are trending downwards, and there may be short periods when part of the Corporate Client Account will be comprised of non-interest-bearing cash deposits as a result of such inter-client trading.

Charges and Fees

- (xi) The Corporate Client undertakes to pay the General Encashment Charge and authorizes the Manager to deduct such sums from the Sub Account with each encashment request.
